

*Blue Christmas
Worship Service
Sunday, December 10
at 3:00pm*

Does all of the joy and tinsel of the Christmas season sometimes get you down? Do you feel blue, while everyone else seems to be celebrating? Have you suffered a loss that makes this Christmas particularly difficult?

Covenant will once again be offering a special afternoon service of worship where, together, we will remember those things that are heavy on our hearts, the loss of loved ones, the loss of opportunities, the shifting of hopes and dreams, and we will give thanks for the strength and the support we have in each other and in Jesus Christ.

Give yourself a gift this Christmas: Recognizing that not all in our lives is merry and bright, let us worship our God, together, on Sunday afternoon, December 10 at 3:00pm. Pastors Jeff Fox-Kline and Clara Thompson and will be leading the service, and Ben Welch will be providing special music. Light refreshments will be served following our time of worship. Please feel free to invite a friend; all are welcome.
